San Diego, CA

STAVATTI CEO Christopher R. Beskar and Director of Innovative Technology Transfer Stuart E. Cart met with Capt. Lou Lenart (Ret.) and Soly Haim on Monday, February 21st for brunch. The purpose of the brunch was to facilitate an initial face-to-face meeting between Mr. Beskar, Capt. Lenart, Mr. Haim and Mr. Cart. Topics discussed during the meeting included Capt. Lenart's role in the formation of the Israeli Air Force, aviation history, strategies associated with the presentation and marketing of Stavatti military aircraft to the Israeli Air Force and the potential incorporation of Israeli defense system manufactures into the SM-27 MACHETE and STALMA industry team.

Mr. Beskar was introduced to Capt. Lenart in August 2004 by Soly Haim by conference call. Mr. Beskar remained in contact with Capt. Lenart by phone and fax prior to this initial in-person meeting, held in Santa Monica, California.

Capt. Lenart is known for leading the first fighter mission of the Israeli Air Force, attacking the Egyptian Army as they moved toward Tel Aviv on 29 May 1948 during Israel's war of independence. The "Grandfather of the Israeli Air Force" Capt. Lenart has had a distinguished career continuing through today.

Soly Haim is the principal behind Screen Magic Entertainment of Los Angeles, California.
